Trailer Court Case

Claim Wrong Data is Given Court

In a suit filed in the Cook county circuit court to establish a big trailer camp on the south side of 159th street between 90th and 94th avenues, the attorney Robert E. Haskins is quoted by Community News Service that there is already a trailer court on the southeast corner of 159th and U.S. 45 which is also known, among other names, as 96th ave.

Haskins enumerates the various businesses at this intersection in the suit, according to Community News Service, and includes a trailer court in the list.

Edward DeYoung, who owns and operates an eye-pleasing and modern motel at the southeast corner of the intersection mentioned above, points out there is no trailer court at any of the corners or in the vicinity of the intersection.

This is the second time such an error has been made and persons in the area who object to having a trailer camp plunked down in Orland township are hopeful that it will be called to the attention of the court.

It is possible, it was pointed out, that a court might reason if there is already a trailer camp established even closer to the village of Orland Park than the one proposed precedent was established in favor of the plaintiff.

There are 40 acres in the proposed site. When it was first brought up before the county zoning board, more than a year ago, no mention was made of a trailer court camp. News accounts said a petition had been filed to reclassify the property as a saloon and amusement center could be established.

Haskins took exception to this and said that what was planned was a fine restaurant and cocktail lounge. Later it was learned that a trailer camp was intended for the site and it was freely admitted at the hearings.

The village of Orland Park, the town officials of Orland township and the Carl Sandburg high school board and the boards of the grade schools that would be affected by establishment of a trailer camp all went on record at the hearings as opposed to a trailer camp.

The zoning board turned down the petition for reclassification of the property and the Cook county board followed the recommendation.

Court action followed. The plaintiff in the suit is the First National Bank of Blue Island, as trustee of the property involved. The suit was filed in May, 1958. On Jan. 23 Circuit Judge Thomas B. Kluczynski denied the county's motion to dismiss the suit and ordered the county to file its answer within 20 days.

The county board has instructed the state's attorney's office to fight the suit.

SNOW, COLD HOLD UP SEWER

Lent Begins Next Wednesday Plan Programs

Next Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent, the 40-day penitential season preceding Easter, and the period is observed in most Christian churches.

Lent has its beginning on Ash Wednesday and ends Easter Saturday, known on some church calendars as Holy Saturday.

Meditation, prayer, fasting and special services mark the observance of Lent in Roman Catholic and Episcopal churches. Observance of Ash Wednesday includes the imposition of ashes, made from the burning of palms that were blessed on Palm Sunday of the previous year.

The mark of ashes on the forehead is not only a symbol of penance and mourning but is also a reminder to man of his brief span on earth as the priest intones "of dust thou art and to dust thou returnest."

Palm Sunday falls on March 22 this year and ushers in Holy Week. Easter is the following Sunday, March 29.

Special Services

Many churches in the area will hold services during Lent. Pastors of Christ Lutheran church, Orland Park, and Trinity Lutheran and St. John Lutheran Tinley Park, will exchange pulpits for Wednesday evening services thru Lent, beginning Feb. 11 and ending March 18. The pastors are, the Rev. Adolph Lach, of Christ church; the Rev. Carl Hoeh, of Trinity; and the Rev. Henry Meyer, of St. John.

"This series of Lenten services," a spokesman for the three churches explained, "will present the central Bible truth that Christ carried our sorrows."

"These Lenten meditations will present His sorrows in Gethsemane, the sorrows of betrayal, of denial, of being condemned, of bearing His Cross and of His death. Christ carried our present, every day sorrows. He brings blessings people urgently need in a day of anxiety and tension. Every one is invited to these special week-day services for a blessed Lenten tide."

Frankfort Man Due in Court in Traffic Case

Robert Fredin, 34, of Frankfort, a building contractor, is scheduled to appear before Justice of the Peace George Williams at Joliet tomorrow morning on a charge of reckless driving. The charge grew out of an automobile accident on U.S. 30 Sunday night, west of Wolf road.

Fredin is alleged to have been driving at high speed and crashed into the rear end of another west bound car. Driver of the other car was Adam Sochaki, 31, of Evergreen Park.

Fredin was held overnight at Silver Cross hospital for observation but was discharged Monday. He complained of head and chest injuries.

A passenger in Fredin's car, Mrs. Lajoy Booble, 29, of Mokena, suffered bruises and injuries to her right wrist and forehead.

She too was taken to the hospital as was Sochaki and the four passengers in his car. Mrs. Booble was held for observation but the four people in the other car, including the driver, were treated and released. They were identified as: Phillip Tomich, 21, Chicago; Ronald Zach, 21, Lawrence, Mich.; Edwin Sochaki, 23, Evergreen Park and George Wasik, Chicago.

ROLLER SKATING

The roller skating parties at the Frankfort school, sponsored by the Frankfort PTA, will be held Feb. 10 and 17. There was one scheduled for Feb. 3 but it was postponed.

Mokena Project Waits On Break in Weather

Work on the Mokena sewer system, which has been tied up by cold and snow, will be resumed when weather permits and it is expected that it will be completed by late spring.

The subject was discussed at the regular meeting of the Mokena village board Tuesday night by the engineer, Robert Hamilton, and village officials.

The sewage treatment plant was to have been done by Feb. 1 but weather had held up the work. There are still finishing touches to be made on the lift station on Wolf road and some laterals are still to be installed.

There are not many of these laterals, it was said, but those on Wolf road will take extra time because the excavations for the mains must be drilled under the highway.

Anthony Dina, director of Civil Defense for Mokena, appeared before the board to request that an auxiliary police force be established under the CD set-up. The village chief of police would serve in a similar capacity for the CD force, Dina said.

He pointed out that such a force could serve the village in emergencies, and handle crowds and traffic at parades, athletic events or community fairs and enterprises, as well as function in civil defense matters.

Members of such a force, Dina added, would be carefully screened, and all would be required to take standard and advanced Red Cross training in first aid and radio transmission. The members would have to be approved by the village board.

Mayor James Marti asked for more information on the subject and indicated the board would take action at its next meeting.

A letter of thanks was sent to CD Police Chief Lilly of Palos Park for two blankets donated for use in the police car. City Clerk Alvin Sorensen announced that village vehicle stickers may be purchased for $3 up to Feb. 28. After that date the price will be $5.

Willard Munch and Ray Westlund, trustees whose terms expire this spring, announced Tuesday night they would seek re-election. Lyman Teague, the other trustee whose term expires this year, has not said yet whether he will be a candidate.

Mr. Dina, the Civil Defense director, is also a candidate for village trustee.

School Boards Consider Joint Program for EMH

Meetings between representatives of boards of education in New Lenox, Mokena, Frankfort and Manhattan are being held with a view to considering the establishment of a class for educable mentally handicapped children on a joint agreement program.

The temporary chairman is Earl Dieken, assistant superintendent at Lincoln-Way high school, who states that at present it is estimated there are between 12 and 15 such children in the school district.

Mokena Lions to Hold 7th Annual Ladies Night, Feb. 7

The Mokena Lions club will stage its seventh annual Ladies Night program Saturday night, Feb. 7, at the Lincoln Heights lounge on U.S. 30.

The affair is to begin at 8 o'clock in the form of a dinner. William Dunbaugh, billed as "The Wizard of Ah's" is to present a magic act and A. Svaboda will be on with comedy musical act, featuring a chimaboom.

Following the dinner there will be dancing to music furnished by a Chicago combo.

Observe World Day of Prayer In Protestant Churches Feb. 13

The World Day of Prayer will be observed in area churches on Feb. 13.

The theme of the service to be held in the Frankfort Methodist church is "Lord I Believe." Four other churches participating are the Green Garden Methodist, St. Peter's in Frankfort, Mokena Methodist and St. John's, Mokena.

The services which are open to all will be followed by a fellowship hour, in the church parlors.

The Palos, Orland and Worth Ministerial association has planned to hold the service this year in the Church of the Transfiguration in Palos Friday, Feb. 13, from 1:30 to 2:30 pm.

At the Tinley Park Methodist church the service will be held Feb. 13, at 11 am, with the Reformed church and Nazarene church participating.

Mrs. Peter Boer and Mrs. Robert Tuggle will represent the Reformed church.

Members of the Methodist church conducting the program are Mrs. Harold Brown, Mrs. Elsie MacKenzie, and Mrs. Kenneth Crandall.

Mrs. James Marshall and Mrs. Clifford Feulner will serve as ushers.

The annual World Day of Prayer is sponsored by the general department of United Church Women of the National Council of the Churches in the United States.

The 1959 service was written by Christian women of Egypt, a country now playing such a pivotal role in world affairs. Each year the service is prepared in a different country. Local councils of church women direct the observance in more than 2300 communities.

Court of Honor at Mokena Sunday Mark's Anniversaries

Boy Scout Week, Feb. 7-13 marks the 49th anniversary of Scouting in the United States.

Mokena Boy Scouts will observe the occasion with a Court of Honor to be staged at the Carpenter street school Sunday afternoon. The program will begin at 2:30 o'clock.

There will be presentation of badges, service stars and awards. Arthur Omland, head scoutmaster, will be in charge.

Susa Cloughly Funeral Services at Tarpon Springs

Last rites for Mrs. Susa S. Cloughly, 76, who died Sunday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Leon E. Frey, 520 Root st., New Lenox, will be held at Tarpon Springs, Fla. tomorrow (Friday).

Mrs. Cloughly was born in Streator and made her home with her daughter for the past two years. She was ill a short time. After her marriage to Charles Cloughly, they lived in Ft. Madison, Ia., where her husband was an engineer for the Santa Fe railroad. When he retired in 1940, they moved to New Port Richey, Fla., where he died in 1950. Two years ago Mrs. Cloughly left Florida and came to New Lenox.

Mrs. Frey is the only survivor.

Removal was made to the Baskerville chapel, New Lenox and from there to Tarpon Springs.

Sewer Plans at Frankfort Held Up by Weather

The Frankfort village board met Monday night but adjourned early after disposing of routine business. The principal business before the board now is a sewer system for the village but until Village Engineer Robert Hamilton completes his survey and comes up with an estimate of the cost there is little the board can do, it was pointed out.

Hamilton was at the meeting Monday and reported that his crews had been unable to go forward with the survey because of the weather. They can't even see the ground, because of the snow, and that they must see to complete their survey and topographic maps.

The three trustees whose terms expire in the spring announced Monday night they will seek re-election. They are: John Topp, Clyde Reils and Wayne DePorto.

Joyce Zinn, 12, Spelling Champ At Orland Park

Joyce Zinn, 12, a seventh grade pupil in the Orland Park grade school, is the champion speller there.

In a spelling contest conducted last Friday afternoon in the school gymnasium, 54 pupils juggled letters and syllables of 250 words before a winner emerged.

There were three left standing when the word "ratify" was pronounced. Gary Anders, 12, also of the seventh grade and Patricia Lehr, 12, of the sixth, missed and Joyce spelled it correctly.

Gary placed second and Patricia third.

Making up the list of contestants were eight pupils from the third and fourth grades; five from the fifth; 25 from the sixth, seven from the seventh and nine from the eighth grade.

The contest was directed by Supt. Norbert Jerling.

Name Students On Honor Roll At Orland School

Norbert Jerling, superintendent of the Orland Park elementary school, has announced the names of honor roll students in the upper grades for the second quarter grading period.

High honor students, all having A's, are as follows: Sixth grade — Leslie Ann Evans, Patricia Ryne, and Janet Taylor; seventh grade — Patricia Jaeger and Nancy Loebe; eighth grade — Diane Bedler and Steve Sedgewick.

Other honor students with an average of "B" in all academic subjects are: Sixth grade — Cynthia Cline, Christine Cyrenek, Pat Doherty, Ted Ebeling, Marilyn Fisher, Albert Loebe, Patsy Reich, and land Roth, Timothy Sedgewick, Linda Wansik, and Virginia Young; seventh grade — Robert Bartell, Richard Benson, Comerford, Judith Fye, Catherine Rennie, Kirk Sorenson, and Susan Steinfatt; eighth grade — Mark Bader, Buck Jean Flonder, and Vin Yunker.

To be eligible for the roll there cannot be a "D", "E", or "U" in any subject.

Orland Vehicle Stickers on Sale Thru February

Orland Park vehicle tags are now on sale and may be purchased from Kenneth Halvorson, the village clerk at his office in the village hall, Tuesday evenings from 7 to 8:30 and on Saturday mornings from 10 o'clock until noon, thru February. There will be a penalty imposed after March 1, the clerk announced.

The Orland village clerk also announced that the village hall will be open at 7 p.m. Monday and Tuesday, March 2 and 3, for the registration of voters. To register persons must be citizens, 21 years of age or over, a resident of the state for a year, the county 90 days and the precinct 30 days.

Mokena, Frankfort School Band Members Tryout For Solo Contest

The Mokena and Frankfort grade school bands held their preliminary solo and ensemble tryouts Jan. 30.

The Frankfort band had 19 soloists, three ensembles and 41 bandmen qualified for the district contest to be held March 14 and 21.

Mokena band had 19 soloists, two ensembles and 29 bandmen qualified for the contest.

The solo and ensemble contest will be held March 14 in Westmont, from 9 am. to 4 p.m. All parents and any other persons interested are invited to attend.

The contest for the whole band will be held March 21 in Rockdale, near Joliet. The time for this event has not as yet been arranged. The public is welcome to attend this contest also.

Both of these bands are under the direction of Perry Friedman, and will share the bus taking the bands to the Westmont contest.

The Mokena Band Boosters are sponsoring monthly dances in the Carpenter st. school the first Saturday of each month. The first of these will be held this Saturday, Feb. 7 from 8 to 11 pm. All students of the Carpenter st. school are urged to attend. Parents will chaperone the affair.

Music Festival

Area Students Appear on Program

Six students from Carl Sandburg high school and five from Lincoln-Way took part in the all state music festival held last Friday and Saturday on the campus of the University of Illinois at Champaign. The affair was held in conjunction with the annual meeting of the Illinois Music Educators Association.

Robert Taylor, band director at Lincoln-Way accompanied the youngsters from Lincoln-Way. Band Director Milton Potter and Mary E. Pearson, chorus conductor, at Sandburg were in charge of the students from there.

Sandburg and Lincoln-Way each had one representative in the 208 piece band that played gym last Saturday afternoon. A concert in George Huff Lester Mahaffay, a junior, from Palos Park, had the honor of being selected as first bass horn in the all state band. There were 11 other bass players there.

Charles Hammond, New Lenox, of Lincoln-Way, one of 11 baritone horn players invited, ranked as fifth in his section.

Originally each school submitted the names of two band members and the final selection was made at Champaign. Only one member was taken from a school band.

Lincoln-Way and Sandburg each sent four singers to the festival. Some 900 youngsters were there to sing, so many that they were divided into two and each gave a concert. An orchestra, made up like the band with one representative from each school, also presented a program.

Sandburg's orchestra sent a member to the state festival, Wilma Maue, of Orland Park, a violinist.

Vocalists from the area who sang at Champaign were: James Gast, of Manhattan; Charles Hunter, New Lenox; JoAnn Hansen, Frankfort and Linda Matasovic, Mokena, from Lincoln-Way; Ronald Bergman, Palos Park; Joseph Millette, Laguna Woods, Debrah Radosevich, Palos Park, and Lee Heinen, Palos Heights from Sandburg.

Push Inquiry into Triple Burglary

Will county sheriff's deputies are still investigating the triple burglary at New Lenox and are hopeful of an eventual break in the case.

The burglars hit the shopping center at the eastern edge of the village on U.S. 30 last Thursday night or Friday morning. They broke holes thru the roof and entered the Economy Food Store, the New Lenox Bakery operated by Robert Facinelli, and Braun Sales.

A '22 target pistol and an antique shotgun were taken from the office at the food market and the shotgun was later found on the roof, along with the tools used by the burglars, an 8 pound sledge, a brace and bit, a 4 foot iron

Shopping Center, 145th and Cicero, Gen County's O. K.

(CNS) Rezoning to permit construction of a shopping center building with space for 15 retail stores at the southeast corner of 145th street and Cicero avenue in Bremen township was approved Monday by the county board.

The two-acre site was rezoned from residential to B-1 business district. Two Chicagoans, Frank Iacunato, 10953 St. Louis avenue, and Orvan Richmond, 10556 Troy, filed the petition.

The zoning change was recommended by the county zoning board. The board noted no objections were raised by officials of Crestwood, Robbins, Midlothian, Markham, and Oak Forest.

Public water supply and sewer facilities will be made available by Oak Forest, it was said.

Plans call for construction of a one-story brick building with asphalt paving for the parking area.

Collect Over $500 in Mothers March of Dimes

More than 100 volunteers collected over $600 in the Mothers March of Dimes Tuesday night. Included among the marchers were many teenagers.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Roe of Riverside drive attended the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Hattie Bradford, in Louisville, Ky. Monday.

It happened in the Chicago theatre Sunday. Village trustee Allen Verhage and his family were enjoying the show, when some folks came in and occupied the seats next to them. It took a few minutes for the Verhages to get over the surprise of the discovery that one chance in a million was true. Right next to them sat Mayor Elmer Knudsen and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chalden entertained Mr. and Mrs. Tony Okroi and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kewiatowski of Oak Lawn Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred

Nitsche entertained some friends Thursday evening with a showing of slide pictures taken on their recent European trip.

Saturday, Feb. 7, Cub Pack 272 will pick up your newspapers. Have them at the curb in small bundles. If the date rains out, Feb. 14 has been designated. Call KE 2-4293 for further information.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The healing power of spiritual enlightenment will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Paul's healing of the cripple at Lystra, as related in the Book of Acts (Ch. 14), will be included in the Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Spirit."

A correlative passage to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy declares: (324:19): "Paul was not at first a disciple of Jesus but a persecutor of Jesus' followers. When the truth first appeared to him in Science, Paul was made blind, and his blindness was felt; but spiritual light soon enabled him to follow the example and teachings of Jesus, healing the sick and preaching Christianity through out Asia Minor, Greece, and even in imperial Rome."

The Golden Text is from I John (4:13): "We are of God: ...Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit."

Small Business Houses Can Heat and Cool With Gas

(CNS) Small businesses in suburbia and northern Illinois now, without waiting on a list can obtain gas for units that provide space heating in winter and air conditioning in summer.

Immediate service by the Northern Illinois Gas company to businesses using under 10-ton units was authorized by the Illinois Commerce Commission.

Northern Illinois Gas, which serves 320 communities in 22 northern Illinois counties, offered the service first to home owners. The ICC authorized 500 such installations on an experimental basis. But only 200 orders came in, and the gas company made the application to extend the offer to small commercial establishments.

Harry L. LaPierre, 63, of 6637 Pine Point drive, died last Thursday, Jan. 29, at South Shore Community hospital, Chicago. He had been ill for a long time.

Mr. LaPierre was born in Chicago, June 30, 1895 and had been a resident of Tinley Park for the past 10 years. He was employed as a checker by the Tinley Park Beverage Co.

Besides his wife, Louise, Mr. LaPierre is survived by three sons, Martin, of Tinley Park; Eugene, of Oak Lawn and Harry, of Chicago; two daughters, Mrs. Adele Chisnell and Mrs. Louise Morris, both of Chicago and one brother, Julian B. LaPierre, of West Chicago.

Removal was to the Hirsch chapel at Tinley from where services were held Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock at St. George Catholic church at 10:00, with the Rev. Thomas D. O'Connell officiating. Interment was in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Catholic Charities Plan Crusade to Acquaint People With Their Needs

The "Catholic Charities story" will be told to Catholics in many Cook and Lake county parishes this year in a door-to-door "crusade of information" planned for the week of May 3-9. Recruitment of crusaders began this week, according to Rt. Rev. Msgr. Vincent W. Cooke, charities supervisor for the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Chicago.

Msgr. Cooke said the crusades are designed to alert Catholics to the achievements and needs of the 83 local Catholic Charities agencies.

"We are certain," he said, "that increased knowledge of our work in all its depth and variety will of itself stimulate more generous financial support. As a federation of private agencies, we depend primarily on voluntary contributions."

One of the major sources of Catholic Charities' income is the annual collection taken up in all parishes of the Archdiocese on the second Sunday of May. In visiting homes, distributing literature and discussing Catholic Charities' needs, crusaders will draw the attention of Catholics to the coming collection. They will not themselves accept contributions

According to Msgr. Cooke, crusades will be formed in individual parishes with the prior consent of each pastor. A parish crusade chairman will be appointed to recruit crusaders, train them and direct them during the crucial door-to-door campaign.

Letters to the Editor

DISAPPOINTED IN TRUSTEES

Dear Sir:
On January 7, 1957, a letter from the President of the Village of Tinley Park was received by me offering to hold a meeting between the village board, the village president, and representatives of three groups from this village concerning the pending sewer program.

Identical letters concerning arrangements for this meeting were received by officers of the Sundale Hills Home Owners Assn. and the North End Improvement Assn.

In this letter the village president stated that he and the trustees would be present at this meeting.

Great significance was attached by us to the presence at this meeting of the village trustees, especially after their unanimous approval of the sewer program as it is now constituted, which was published in last week's newspaper.

I am sorry to say that with one exception they did not appear.

The presence of the one man who did appear can only be attributed to his curiosity aroused by witnessing a crowd as he passed the Municipal building.

The failure of the village trustees to appear is of great importance to us, we feel disappointed and not a little cheated.

We assumed that inasmuch as they unanimously approved the project under consideration they would have the ability and common courtesy to answer questions existing in the minds of the cross section of the electorate who made time in their schedule to attend this meeting.

Their absence leaves the groups concerned with limited alternatives, either they couldn't answer the questions they thought would be asked, they didn't care to answer them, or they weren't informed that any such meeting was being held.

L-W, Bremen in Tough Defensive Tilt

Browsing Through The Cold Stove League

By Dean Dallas, Sports Editor

Strange things happened again this week-end in the SW Suburban basketball picture.

Lincoln-Way's Knights blurred the clear picture on Friday evening by scoring the Brave once again, then losing, 48-46.

Then on Saturday—for 30 minutes these same Knights kept Rich and Bill Burkhardt wondering just what would happen.

Carl Sandburg turned on Reavis, after a shellacking from Rich, and stayed right in third place. They expelled the Rams. A tie now exists with Bremen—who won two, as expected.

Kay Hutsell, Bremen coach, feels that the SW Suburban wrestling tournament, to be held at Rich, Feb. 12-14, will be won by Reavis. The other teams will finish in this order—according to Hutsell: Oak Lawn, Sandburg, Bremen, Evergreen Park, Rich, and Lincoln-Way.

Ron Larsen of Lincoln-Way agrees with Hutsell, that Reavis should win handily—the SW Suburban crown—once again.

Watch for the special four-page section in your Semmler Press on the forthcoming SW Suburban wrestling tournament—it will be published on February 19.

Beginning of the state wrestling tournament for our area will be at Carl Sandburg on Thursday, Feb. 19, at 7:15 pm.

There are eight schools in this district tourney. The host school Sandburg, Lockport, Joliet, Lincoln-Way, Downers Grove, Morris, Naperville and Oswego.

The winners will advance to the Blue Island sectional, which starts on Feb. 27.

The Sandburg champion wrestles the Calumet City district winner, with this victor advancing to the state finals at Arlington High School, Arlington Heights, March 6-7.

In the Calumet City district, besides the host school, are Bremen, Blue Island, Morgan Park Military Academy, Bloom, Evergreen Park, Thornton, Oak Lawn and Rich.

Sandburg and Lincoln-Way meet in another SW Suburban rival contest. Some players on each of these teams are neighbors—as is the case with Bremen and Sandburg.

You may look for a good contest. Sandburg has been high then they have been low.

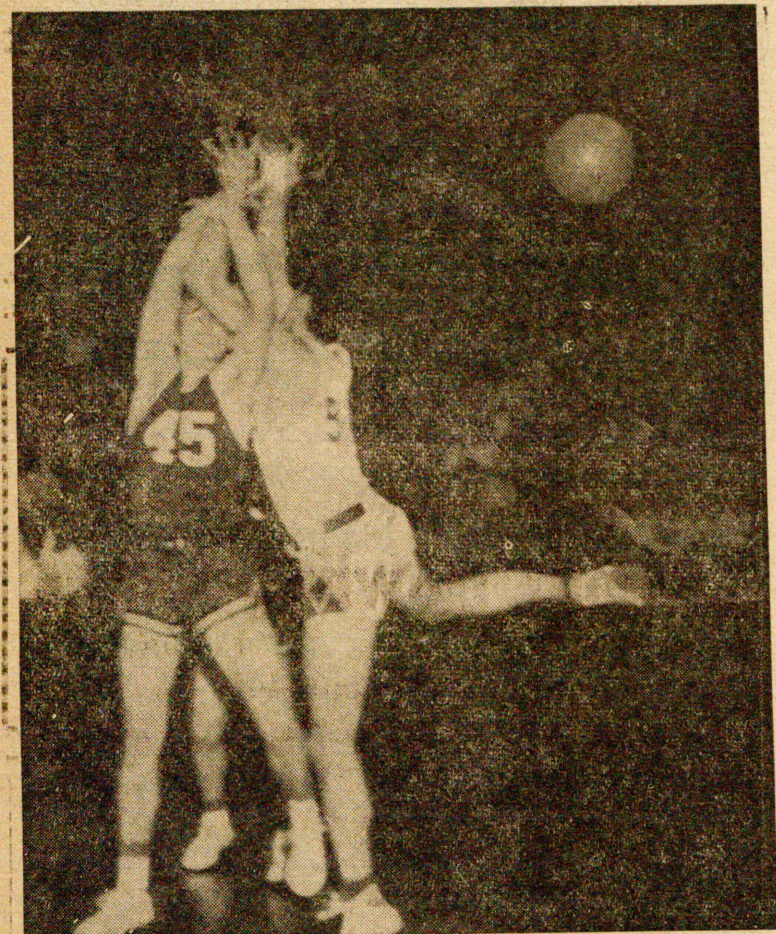

Lincoln-Way has shown steady improvement.

If one is to judge from last week-end's performance—they would have to pick the Knights of Lincoln-Way, but one can't forget the 15-point margin that the Eagle clawed to at Orland Park a month or so ago.

Again comparative scores will be rather useless. Kruzich's sayers just might net a first victory.

Sandburg is battling for a third place tie—that is if Bremen takes Evergreen Park, as is expected. The Eagles must rule a couple point favorite at this point.

Sandburg by 5 points in this contest.

LOOK MA! ALL HANDS!—Had there been a sculptor in the audience he might have chosen this group as models for a trophy or to ornament a fountain. The basketball, off to one side there may be in orbit. Just looking at it one doesn't know whether it is going or coming. The two players in the foreground of the tangle of arms and hands are George Ruhle (45) of Lincoln-Way and John Przybyla of Bremen. Bremen Looks for 2nd Water Win

Tonight at Thornton Fractional the Bremen swimming Braves will be seeking the second victory in a dual meet on the season. Early in the year at Midlothian they conquered the Fractional men with little difficulty for the first swimming victory in the schools entire history.

Thus they are a good favorite in this contest.

Larry Rosenquist, who lost to Argo after a week of illness, should be ready. This makes Bremen a more powerful team.

Last week, Argo pulled a mild surprise in beating the Braves at the Argo pool, 54-32. Coach Joe Rusk, of Bremen, had been looking for his aqua boys to pull up with win number two there.

Many of Rusk's men are freshmen and sophomores and thus it is very possible that a varsity power could develop here at Midlothian. For these young men are swimming varsity, now, and finishing in the point brackets. One big disappointment

NO FOUL!—This picture is a good illustration of the saying that appearances can be deceiving. Jim Miffilin (12) is not about to punt or place-kick Lincoln-Ways sharpshooting "Skip" Kruzich who happened to be prone on the floor when the shutter snapped. Nor did he step on "Skip". It so happened that Kruzich slipped and sprawled just in front of Miffilin and the latter stepped over him. Watching is Jerome Randle El (14) of Bremen and beyond him is Tom Peterson of the Knights. (Marvin Smith photo)

Bremen Wrestlers Continue to Show Improvement; Crush Lockport

The Bremen wrestlers continued to improve as a unified team, as they smeared the Porters of Lockport, 31 to 9, on the latter's mats.

Coach Kay Hutsell was very pleased with the Braves showing, which was even more brilliant, due to the fact two or three of his first-string wrestlers were absent.

Hutsell said, "I felt that since the turn over of personnel, (the loss of key members of last year's team), the boys team spirit and unity are now at a peak." "Also, I think the boys are becoming accustomed to me and my teaching methods."

As promised last week, each Hutsell will explain how to improve the caliber of high school wrestling.

In the first place, parental fear is a big obstacle, which has to be conquered. By this the Bremen mentor means that parents are often afraid to let their children try out for wrestling, because there is a general feeling that wrestling is dangerous.

Television is mainly responsible for this belief, as anyone not versed on the subject, undoubtedly gets the impression from the T.V. "actors" that wrestlers are apt to get hurt.

"On the contrary," states Hutsell, "wrestling is the only sport that gives a boy a chance to compete no matter what size he is. There is actually less wrestling mishaps, when compared to other sports. Parents will allow their children to try out for football, but are often afraid of wrestling due to television."

Not many years back, Coach Fitzgerald of Reavis undertook the task of promoting wrestling. At the present time, Reavis wrestling is the major sport at the school and the Rams themselves are perennial state contenders.

In an attempt to project the intensity of wrestling interest, The coach urges all parents of the Bremen wrestlers to attend the meet against Carl Sandburg, this Friday night.

Frosh.Soph: Bremen 46 Lockport 6.

Rich, like Bremen, did not find the Lincoln-Way team any soft touch over the weekend.

They subdued the Knights in a fourth quarter burst 75-55. Score is not indicative of the ensuing struggle.

Each team took only 46 shots from the floor. Rich connected on 22 efforts for a fine 48%, but the Knight was not to be out done and he hit on 21 of 46 shots for an excellent 46%.

As has happened in at least three or four games, the L-W team was beaten at the charity stripe.

Rich hit on 31 of 48 foul attempts. Lincoln-Way got only 21 chances, less than half of Rich's efforts, and made good on 13.

One of the reasons for the L-Way fouling is inexperience and lack of height.

However, that height didn't bother George Ruhle. He collected more rebounds than his counterpart on the Rich squad. George outdid Wagner 16 to 12. Wagner stands 6' 5" -Ruhle is 5' 11". Ruhle added 9 points to his 16 rebounds.

Rich broke out to a 7-0 lead. Lincoln-Way called time out, decided not to fold, charged back-cutting the margin to 7-5. That was courage.

The quarter found Rich out front, 20-13.

In the second quarter, Lincoln-Way took the play away from the bigger and more experienced men from Park Forest. The golden rocket was sputtering. Knights continued and surged 25-22—scoring 12 points while holding Rich to one basket.

Free throws began going in for Rich and by the half the lead opened to 36-29.

The Knight made its last desperate charge in the closing moments of the third period. They closed in on Rich and were within three points of the victors when fouls began to send away the first line of Knights.

The lead was 52-41 at the end of three quarters.

With one minute and 30 seconds to go, Rich had lost a little ground and was leading 64-55. Three Knight regulars were out with five fouls.

Then came nine straight foul shots for Rich—added a basket, piled up the eventual winning margin of 75-55.

Larry Iwema, continuing to improve, was tied for top scoring laurels for L-Way with "Skip" Kruzich at 14. Both shot a fine 50% from the field. Don Drage was the main Rocket missile with 21 points on 7 and 7. Phil Wagner had a total of 18.

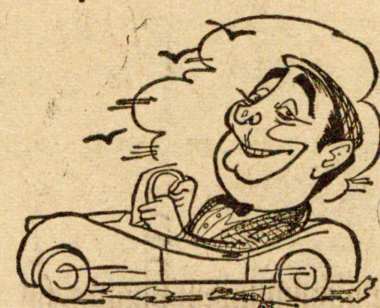

"Rich couldn't substitute in this game," smiled losing coach Kruzich of L-W.

Approximately 150 hunters participated in the fox hunt sponsored by the New Lenox Sportsmen's Club.

Three foxes were bagged in the morning and after fortifying themselves with a hot chili dinner, the huntsmen went forth and bagged four more foxes in the afternoon.

Braves Manage to Hang on Long Enough to Post 48-46 Victory

Joe Kruzich had his young and eager Knights in a very serious mood over the weekend. They did their best to prove that Bremen and Rich did not mean automatic annihilation.

Bremen hung on to best the Lincoln-Way team, 48-46. Highly regarded, Bremen frosh-soph., was lucky to escape with a two-point victory. This is the first time that any opponent in the SW Suburban Conference has ever come close to the youthful Braves.

You just wouldn't have recognized this as the last place team with no conference victories. They were intent on winning. Apparently the defeatist complex is not a battle for Kruzich and his lads. That Knight is going to joust until he wins.

By the yardstick of modern day scoring this was a defensive battle.

Kruzich's smaller men played Bremen's four hotshot scorers, foud John Przybyla cold, let him shoot, and thus made a contest of it. Time after time the four scoring axes were bottled up with Przybyla missing the open shot.

George Ruhle, still needing polish on his shooting, has become rather accomplished at snaring the rebound from the larger foe. George got 13 in the Bremen contest. George with forward, Larry Iwema, about matched the entire Bremen team output.

The Braves had their worst shooting night of the season with a mark of only 32 percent. They were able to get away less than 50 shots. This is another low scoring mark for them.

Lincoln-Way shot a slightly better percentage but got away a couple less shots.

Bremen came away with a new respect for sophomore "Skip" Kruzich. "Skip" scored 18 points and directed the team very well—in the exciting game.

Fresh from their convincing victory over Sandberg, the Braves started with much less zip. At the conclusion of the first quarter it was, 11-10.

The second period was the best for Bremen. The Braves were hurt by Jim Miffilin, usually reliable rebounder and scoring, collecting four fouls at the end of this first half.

Breaking fast they moved ahead to a 23-13 margin. After Miffilin's fouls the score conclusion was, 26-19.

Quarter three was a duplicate of the first quarter. L-Way kept the high scoring Braves blanketed as Przybyla continued to outfight the Braves on the boards.

Bremen squeaked the quarter, 10-8.

To the startled amazement of the Bremen partisans the Knights rushed back to the fray. Fresh and ready for battle.

Exactly and surely the tide of battle changed and the Knights began to bend the Braves. Bremen had managed to gain a bit each quarter.

but now the pressure was on.

Again the Knights charged down the floor scored the basket and recouped for the next charge.

Seconds to go—seconds to go—Knight Iwema took the shot, it bounced off the rim—time ran out—Bill Remien tipped in the basket and it didn't count. Bremen won, 48-46.

This certainly was the great night for the Knights. Never have they challenged with more zest, skill, and determination than on that eventful Friday at Midlothian.

Joe Kruzich, L-Way coach, "The boys did everything that I asked them. It was no shame to lose—man for man Bremen has height, shooting skill—but as you can see—courage can still make up for a lot."

"We thought that we could stop Bob Rodger. But when he shoots—he shoots right. I'll consider him for all-star material."

Rodger scored 11 for the game. Jim Mannioni was good for 14 points. Przybyla tied with Jim for leading scoring honors with 14.

The sharp shooters just didn't get the shots.

Kruzich was high for the game with 18. Larry Iwema netted 14.

Rich Has Battle in Overcoming Lincoln-Way

"We kept them under pressure until they began marching to the charity line."

"How do I keep my kids up? They have a lot of courage and desire. They lack considerably in some abilities, but they never quit. They want to play basketball."

It was amazing that Lincoln-Way could stay at the high pitch for the two battles with two of the best teams in the SW Suburban.

Burkhardt of Rich felt that Lincoln-Way was much improved over the first meeting. In that game, Rich won by 40 points.

Lincoln-Way frosh-soph handed the Rocket its second beating in two nights. This dropped the Rich team to third place in the league standings and moved Lincoln-Way to fourth place.

They won by seven points. First victory over Rich in 5 years.

Bremen Beats Oaks to Tie for Third 61-54

Bremen completely outplayed the second place Oak Lawn team, 61-54, and moved into a third place tie with Carl Sandburg.

This was sweet revenge for the Braves.

They held Hank DeVries under 30 points and they beat the Oak Lawn team—coming from behind.

No one could be snubbed out for the supreme effort that insured the victory. Each Brave took his turn at heroics that made coach Joe Walton comment, "It was a good game and we lost."

As in the initial encounter at Oak Lawn, the Braves dropped well behind the Spartans, scoring only 3 of 21 shot attempts in the opening period.

Early in the second period the Braves were down by 13 points, 23-10. At this point the Spartans seemed well in command of things.

Jim Mannaioni whipped up a long 35-foot set shot. Bob Rodgers hooked in his first basket from 15-feet and the score was 23-14. John Przybyla had accumulated four fouls and was sitting on the bench. Jim Randolph, rapidly developing Brave, flipped in a close up shot. Mannaioni jumped at the key and two points—23-18.

Jim hit on 6 of 9 shots in the contest. He hit that basket—friend.

Oak Lawn made two free throws, 25-18. The Spartans began again to move toward the end of the second period and appeared to be on the end of a comfortable 36-26 lead.

Again the Braves went on the warpath. Jerome Randle El took over as hero. He dribbled down the floor and shot in a basket. Jerome came down again and jumped it in for the half time score of 36-30.—Spartans.

Mannaioni became the hero as the Braves outscored Oak Lawn, 18-9 in quarter three.

Jim opened the quarter with a driving two-point shot. Randle El hit on a side shot, and Miffilin swished the net with a corner toss.

With 2½ minutes to go in the third quarter, Oak Lawn held stubbornly to the lead.

Miffilin hit on a long corner shot to cut the Spartan lead, 45-42. Then Mannaioni hit the basket in three of four attempts, and the Braves were out front to stay, 48-45.

It was the Bremen foul shooting, lead by Miffilin in the final period, that spelled out the final margin of victory.

Miffilin netted 7 for 7 free efforts as the Spartans panicked.

ed. From here the Braves were in. Miffilin was scoring hero here.

Randolph and Rodgers were outstanding in rebounding efforts.

Bremen made short work of DeVries and company on the boards. They easily controlled both offensive and defensive efforts by a 37-18 margin. Best thus far this season for the Mid-Illian gang.

Mannaioni came out with a tremendous night of six for nine shots made and leading scorer with 17 points. DeVries and Borkowski scored 17 apiece for Oak Lawn.

This might be labeled as a real team victory for the Braves. Each man had a vital part in the victory. Each man had his moment of glory.

"It was a fine victory," added Bill Brown, Braves coach. It showed the Bremen team back up toward the top tied now with Sandburg.

Bremen frosh-soph easily beat Oak Lawn, reaching the 70-point mark for the first time this season.

Methodists Unbeaten; Zions Get First Win

On a second half surge which netted 41 points, the Methodist came back to notch its 10th win of the season and remain unbeaten in the Tinley Park Church League. St. George was the victim of the Methodist splurge, 56-41.

Zion Lutheran led thru the entire contest, in the first game of the evening, to score its first league victory of the season (after eight straight defeats) over the Nazarenes 50-41.

With expert marksmanship by Ron Gallina the Catholics raced out to a convincing 14-8, first period advantage. St. George continued to play a defensive game and score with deliberate swiftness.

By the half St. George had outdistanced the Methodist by 10 points. This is the first time this season that the Methodists have ever been behind at the half—not considering the 10 deficit.

Quarter three was disaster for the Catholics. With excellent

EAGLES SPLIT IN WEEK-END LOOP PLAY

Orland Park School Knocks Off Reavis 61-48 to Hold Third Place

The Eagles shook themselves, decided that things should be better, and then went out and chased the Rams off their peak of third place, 61-48.

It was an upset win. Sandburg had won earlier in the season, but they appeared to be going down hill—that is—until the convincing win over Reavis.

"We played a pretty good second half," reports Bill Adams, Sandburg coach. "But we certainly should have played a much better game."

"Of course, we are glad to beat Reavis and we are glad to be in third place. This is much higher than most that we would reach at any time this season."

It was the Sandburg defense that really put the works out of commission for Reavis. The Eagles held the Reavis team to only 6 field goals in the first half of play. This is probably the best defensive effort by Sandburg for one half a game.

"Jerry McBride played a good game for us," enthused Adams. "He was getting the shots and making them. We should get this kind of play from Jerry every game."

McBride scored 18 points on nine field goals.

Don Arnold, willowly, high scoring center, was rather badly hobbled over the week-end with bad ankles. Don still managed a good night of rebounding and a total of 14 points.

Sandburg and Reavis battled claw and hoof in the first quarter, and the Eagle flapped out to a 15-12 margin.

A little Ram butting rammed through a 9-8 margin for Reavis and a half time lead for Sandburg of 23-21.

Arnold and McBride found the range in that second half as the Sandburg squad scored 38 points to Reavis' 27.

This was the second highest scoring effort by the Eagles this season.

The large bird boosted its shooting percentage by about 20% over the previous night horror of 13%.

It was the first return to fine play by the Orland Park club since they took Evergreen Park by four points, two weeks ago.

They have hung tenaciously to third place ever since the beginning of the season. For the last three weeks they have been on the verge of dropping lower, but at the crucial time, they came up with the win and move back into the tie or hold the position.

Bob Schneider, senior forward, scored 13 points for the Eagles, most of his coming on foul shots. Schneider has shown some fine basketball after his spell of sickness.

Natalie of Reavis produced the best point performance of the game with a total of 20-5 baskets and 10 charity tosses. No one else reached double figures for the Rams.

IN THE MIDDLE—and the middle man in this instance, looks like Sandburg's Bob Schneider. The Reavis man with No. 35 on his jersey, is Lemonier. The other Reavis player was not identified. (Marvin Smith photo)

Sandburg's frosh-soph team moved into a second place tie with Rich by beating Reavis, 43-30. This they did as Lincoln-Way frosh-soph easily beat the young Rocket.

It looks like a battle for the second spot in the frosh-soph SW Suburban League race between Lincoln-Way and Sandburg. At this point the youthful birds hold the upper hand.

Friday evening will decide much—as they meet for the second time.

Sandburg Cage Sharpshooters Lose Aim in Battle With Rich Rockets

When you shoot 13% you lose.

When you shoot 52% you usually win.

Well, that is what happened at Park Forest on Friday evening of last week in a game between Carl Sandburg and Rich.

Rich shot 52% and won; Sandburg shot 13% and lost. Rich's lopsided victory then is no mystery to anyone.

Sandburg outbounded the Rockets and launched more missiles at the exposed cords, but just couldn't cut them for the two-points.

The Eagles didn't have a man or two with an off night, but the entire team found itself floundering from the field.

Jerry McBride was leading point getter with 7 points. He netted 6 of these in the final quarter -- when Sandburg made some kind of comeback.

Don Arnold, hobbled with ankle trouble, scored just one foul shot for the Eagles. When Don is good for only one point you can look for Sandburg with a sub-40 point evening.

Sandburg took five more shots in the first quarter than Rich did, but was behind, 27-5 and by half had mounted the score to 40-13.

"At this point," explained Coach Adams, "we cleared the bench."

Rich didn't clear the bench and mounted a shocking 18-2 advantage for the third period. The score, yes it is true, was 58-15.

Back came the Sandburg varsity, sparked by McBride, they just reached the 30 mark with a 15 point fourth quarter.

The Eagles were missing all sorts of shots. Rich didn't have to guard much for the Orland Park team was more than off --they were out of it for that night.

Sandburg just became discouraged, as the ball continued to jump out. One of those nights . . . better off with blinders . . . Oh! if some of the shots would have fallen right.

Phil Wagner, big Rich center, scored 16 points as top man for Rich.

In the preliminary, Sandburg avenged an early season overtime loss by handing Rich frosh-soph its second defeat of the season by a 43-33 margin. It was an easy victory.

Sandburg Matmen Win Second Quadrangular

Winning quadrangular wrestling meets has become a habit for the Carl Sandburg high school wrestling team as it added the championship of the Illinois-Wisconsin tourney held at Kenosha, Wis., Saturday, Jan. 31.

Coach Joe Devine's matmen easily outdistanced the field by piling up 114 points. Janesville ran in second place with 77, followed by Kenosha with 67 and Libertyville with 55.

Ten Eagles flew into the finals following the morning competition with seven coming out with championships. The pair that was eliminated in the morning went on to win third places.

Sandburg had champions in the first five weight divisions 100-130 pounds, represented by Earl Brietbarth, Ron Pisner, Ron Semetis, Tom Miller and Dave Gibson. Roger Chatlosch at 147 pounds and Al Jacklich at 180 pounds completed the list of front runners.

Second place finishes were picked up by Tony Uzzardo at 134 pounds, Jerry Gorman at 157 pounds and heavyweight Fred Hely. Finishing in third spots were sophomores Chuck Kallstrom and Ray Heniff.

Sandburg has three dual meet opponents on the schedule this week before entering the Southwest Suburban conference meet. After a bout with Lockport on Wednesday the schedule sends the Eagles to Bremen on Friday and Hinsdale on Saturday.

Chatlosch pinned the best

Wisconsin wrestler—that is—at the 147 pound weight. Devine reports, "For that day and that tournament, Roger was the best man—barring none."

Dave Gibson won his 15 in a row for Sandburg.

"The competition in Wisconsin is not as good as we face in Illinois, but the hustle and the team spirit—best I've noted this season—helped us to easily out distance the opposition," explained the Eagle coach.

Sandburg added another win on Saturday by beating Evergreen Park in the final match of the meet, 22-20. Fred die Hely won the match by pinning Millar in the heavy-weight finale.

Lincoln-Way's Mat Tune-Up Was Disastrous

Captain Ken Zitter kept Reavis from blanking the Lincoln-Way varsity wrestlers by decisioning his opponent in a 4-2 contest. Zitter remains unbeaten. Disastrous tune up for the Morris meet, this was.

Coach Flanagan's frosh-soph outfit of Knights broke the unbeaten string for the Reavis frosh-soph squad in a close 24-20 meet. This was a smash ing victory.

Ron Larsen, varsity coach, considered this the best news of this match. "Reavis is always tough, and this win should give us some hope for next year and the year after."

SUMMARY OF FROSH-SOPH MEET:

Thought For This Week

We all recognize that the path to individual prosperity is to save. Why then do so many assume that the way to national prosperity is to spend?

L-W, Eagle Tilt Highlights Card

The meeting of Lincoln-Way and Carl Sandburg highlights the weekend basketball menu for February 6-7.

Last time around the Eagles knocked over a rubbery Knight who had just been pelted by the Rockets.

This time it should be different. The Rocket pellets were not nearly so effective this time, and the Eagles' wines have been slightly trimmed in the past few weeks.

Sandburg must rule the favorite in this contest.

New Lenox will be the site of the battle. Bremen will be trying to keep alive its winning streak and extend it to five straight. The Braves have coped three consecutive SW games.

Evergreen Park should not offer too much competition—since Bremen disposed of second ranking Oak Lawn, 61-54 last Saturday. The Braves showed some spark in that contest.

The Rich-Reavis game might be some go. Rich took the Rams by a dozen at Park Forest—but not until the first six Reavis men were on the bench for committing five personal fouls.

The Rockets might find that a Ram is real tough—when on his own peak.

PTA Presidents in District 19 Learn Goals of Training Course

SOC PTA presidents 2-24

Through skits and general discussion, Council and local unit PTA presidents of District 19, ICPT, became acquainted with Parent Education lay leadership last week.

Along with recent graduates of the lay leadership training course, the group met at the YMCA in Harvey to learn the goals and objectives of this training.

Sora Barth Loeb, professional leader of the Harvey training course, discussed the course content, importance of leadership training, the role of the lay leader, program planning, techniques, materials and plans for the September 1959 class.

"Any responsible and sincere person," said Mrs. Loeb, "can become a competent leader if among other things, one is given an understanding of parent education."

Mrs. Loeb further stated that "the most important quality in a leader is her attitude, not her fund of knowledge or her ability to speak in public."

Study discussion in action was demonstrated by graduates and training course staff members. Mrs. Edmund Jaracz of Chicago Heights, advisor, presented the group in three sub-groups, explaining how subject matter is chosen.

A skit, "How a Parent and Family Life Committee Organizes," was presented by staff members. Those taking part were: Mrs. Chester Williams, Orland Park; Mrs. Richard Klein, Homewood; Mrs. Ralph Birkot, Chicago Heights; Mrs. Barbara McPherrin, Harvey and Mrs. Mary Jane Johnson, Tinley Park.

"What's the Matter with Janie," a one act play presented by recent graduates and course advisors, demonstrated thought provoking every day problems in family living. Participants were Mrs. Kay Barz, Oak Lawn; Mrs. Catherine Davis, Evergreen Park, and Mrs. Gordon Brandt Blue Island.

Other persons taking part were Mrs. Allan Roush, Park Forest; Mrs. Roger Nelson, Evergreen Park; Mrs. Russel Martin, Matteson and Mrs. Charles Barr, Matteson.

Buzz sessions were led by Mrs. Edmund Jaracz, Mrs. Russell Martin, advisor; Mrs. Anthony Blasi, Evergreen Park, course co-ordinator, and Mrs. Fred T. Millward, Director of District 19. These sessions covered "How to Form a Group," "Problems of Existing Groups" and "How to Incorporate Parent Education into PTA Programs."

In the absence of Mrs. Richard Piehl, Blue Island, District Parent Education assistant, Mrs. Anthony Blasi conducted both the morning and afternoon sessions of the work shop.

A workshop to be held May 7, will be for the benefit of newly elected PTA presidents, school principals and other interested persons.

Appoint Red Cross Chairman For Tinley Park

Mrs. Voris S. Miller, 17539 65th avenue, has been named chairman for the March 1959 Red Cross fund campaign in Tinley Park, reports John D. Moynahan, general chairman of the campaign in suburban villages of Cook and DuPage counties.

Mrs. Miller will assume responsibility for general organization, coordination and administration of the campaign. "Through your contribution to Red Cross," Mrs. Miller said, "you are indirectly going to the scene of every one of the more than 400 disasters that occur in the Chicago area each year, giving emergency help and assisting in getting families back on their feet. Your money also helps Red Cross keep the servicemen and his family back home a united family, by acting as liaison during times of personal trouble."

"Classes in mother-baby care, Home care of the sick and injured, First Aid, and Water Safety are made available to our community through your gifts to Red Cross," she said.

Mrs. Miller has served voluntarily as Red Cross fund chairman and public information representative since 1954. She is president of the Tinley Park Community Library board, and a member of the Woman's club and League of Women Voters.

Junior Woman's Club to Hear Contest Details

The Orland Park Junior Woman's club will meet Feb. 9, at MacKenzie's restaurant in Orland Park, at 8 p.m. Details of the general Federation of Women's Clubs fashion sewing contest will be released by Mrs. George Johnson, American Home chairman.

Members are asked to bring the following items to the February meeting, as they are needed for Oak Forest hospital:

Any cotton, such as dresses, shirts, draperies, bed spreads; any amount of yarn, crochet cotton, bright buttons, embroidery thread; folded paper bags; large size and shopping bags preferred; Felt hats, bright colors; any pieces to embroider; flour sacks.

Also discarded narrow wood picture frames; any samples or factory discards, or plastic bags.

Three gift certificates donated by the Oak Lawn Studio will be given. The certificates entitle the winners to a free photograph, and were sent to Mrs. Eckel as she was program chairman in January when a film release was shown. The certificates arrived too late for the January meeting.

Mrs. Raymond King will be program chairman for the February meeting, and Mrs. George Schilling, co-chairman in charge of refreshments.

Final plans for the bazaar to be held at the Roosevelt school at 146th and LaSalle, in Dolton, will be discussed, and all remaining hand made items collected. The bazaar will be held Feb. 13 at 8 p.m. and is open to the public. It is hoped that many residents in the area will attend, and that Junior clubwomen will bring guests to this affair sponsored by the Third District Juniors.

Bride-elect Feted at Shower

A miscellaneous bridal shower was given Sunday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Ralph Nieland, Frankfort, for Miss Barbara Weir of Chicago, who will become the bride of Alan Hedges of Frankfort on Saturday, Feb. 7. The wedding will take place in St. Peter's church, Frankfort at 7 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 7, to which all relatives and friends are invited.

There were 30 guests at the shower. Games were played and duplicate prizes given the honored guest.

A buffet luncheon was served from a table covered with a silver and metallic cloth, centered with a bouquet of gladioli, carnations and mums in turquoise and white, the chosen colors of the bride. Double candelabra were at each end of the table.

The bride received many lovely gifts. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Glenn Folkers, Mrs. Henry Breidert and Mrs. Walter Pfaff.

Dinner guests later in the Nieland home were Dr. and Mrs. W. V. Hedges, Roger

Friends Greet Henry I. Clarks On Anniversary

More than 300 relatives and friends attended the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Henry I. Clark, Union st., Mokena, last Sunday in the parlors of St John's United church, Mokena.

The decorations were arranged by Mrs. Florence Brues and were of silver foil wedding bells, hearts and flowers. The tables were decorated with candles in silver candle sticks, silver bowls and a four tiered cake on the main serving table. A wall plaque was centered with the wedding picture of 25 years ago surrounded with all the beautiful cards which the couple had received for this occasion.

The ladies of the Wayfarers organization were hostesses and served at the guest book, punch bowl and the serving of the cake.

Mrs. Clark was becomingly gowned in a print dress with silver threads outlining the design. She wore an orchid corsage. Mr. Clark had a carnation boutonniere.

A program was arranged by Henry I. Clark, son of the honored couple, which consisted of, invocation by the Rev. William Riemann, vocal solos, by the Rev. Edward Nelson, pastor of the Bethesda Lutheran church, Chicago, and Bonnie Rydell, Mokena; accordion duet by Arlene and Carol Lauffer; an original poem written and read by Mrs. John Swisher, Tinley Park and pantomimes by John Nimmer and Henry I. Clark Jr., and an interpretive reading by John Nimmer entitled, "The Glass Menagerie".

Refreshments were prepared and served by Caterer Mrs. Alma Brown.

Catholic Women Make Plans for Lenten Projects

The January meeting of St. Jude's Altar and Rosary society, New Lenox, was preceded by the formal erection of the Rosary Confraternity and the admission of members into the society.

At the business meeting, various projects for Lent were discussed. It was decided to sew for the missions and make rosaries. Several other matters were tabled for future reference.

The program for the February meeting will be a demonstration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass by the moderator, Fr. Faustin Klink, O. F. M.

Hostesses were: Mrs. William Feltner, Mrs. James Battle, Mrs. Lester Brown, Mrs. Adeline O'Daniel and Mrs. Ted Zusa.

Prizes were won by Ann Wondrasek, Johanna McCure, Marion Baskerville, Lillian Huttenhoff, Mabel Reiter, Lucille Brent, Mary Lacey, Edna Cutler, Delores Wysock and Bea Tarrant.

Americans pay more for taxes than they do for food. According to the Grocery Manufacturers of America Inc., the nation's food consumption in 1958 amounted to about $79 billion. In comparison, the year's tax bill was about $108 billion.

ELIGIBLE FOR $1,500 SCHOLARSHIP—Marianne Merwin, of Orland Park, a senior at Sandburg high school, was the winner there of the Betty Crocker Award which gives her a chance at state honors. State winners are eligible for national awards.

No 4 Party Line Installations After Monday

Under a new tariff, Illinois Bell will not install four-party service in residences after Feb. 9. Only one and two-party lines will be offered. Four-party lines now in operation will be out of service by July 1, 1960.

The ICC pointed out it has the power to block termination of four-party service in any community if the phone company's 1960 target date should create a hardship.

About 97,000 homes and apartments in Illinois now have four-party lines. Such service—labeled by Illinois Bell as outmoded—was discontinued in Chicago last year. Forty-five other cities and towns also are without it already.

The monthly cost difference in 2-party and 4-party service is "small," ranging from 35¢ to 85 cents, said G. L. Seaton, an Illinois Bell assistant vice-president. He said there's been a decreasing demand for 4-party service. About 95 per cent of all new Illinois residence customers are ordering one and two-party lines, Seaton said.

Illinois Bell engineers estimated the elimination of 4-party service will cost $2,700,000 for additional telephone cable and equipment.

Here is the number of four-party residence phones in the area: Tinley Park, 278; Orland Park, 91; Palos Park, 334; Mokena, 156; Frankfort, 103; New Lenox, 410; Lemont, 349; Harvey, 1,718; Homewood, 363.

bar and a small pinch bar. The bakery till yielded approximately $200 and $600 in cash and merchandise were taken at Braun Sales. There the thieves took 52 wrist watches; a transistor radio, three movie cameras and two still cameras, a 35 mm. and a Polaroid; a table model radio and four electric power drills. It is expected that most of the merchandise will be offered for sale but investigators are wondering if the burglars will use the power drills in their trade.

The area is patrolled during the night by police but it would have been quite difficult for them to have seen anyone on the roof, and it is understood that steps are being taken to remedy this situation.

City or Country? That's the Question at Palos Heights

(CNS) County Judge Otto Kerner has called a special election in Palos Heights where voters Saturday, Feb. 28 will decide whether to incorporate as a city.

The election date was set Monday, the same day the petition for referendum was filed.

Containing signatures of 152 residents, the petition reported the unincorporated community has a population of 4,500.

The area proposed for incorporation as the City of Palos Heights contains about 3 1/2 square miles, said Attorney Richard L. Furry, who filed the petition.

The area seeking incorporation is bounded generally on the north by the village limits of Worth, 131st street on the south, Ridgeland on the east, and 78th Avenue on the west.

Generally, the east boundary is Ridgeland. However, land east of Natchez Avenue

DAR Award at Bremen Goes to Markham Girl
Sandy Bonaker, of Markham, senior at Bremen Community high school, is this year's winner of the good citizenship award presented by the Daughters of the American Revolution at that school.

The award is based on the four qualities of "dependability, leadership, services and patriotism."

Senior class members nominated three girls for the honor, and the faculty selected one member from the nominees.

Close runners-up were Shirley Thomas and Dawn Hartwig, both of Tinley Park. The presentation will be made at the annual honors day assembly at the close of the school year.

Church Women Join in World Day of Prayer

By Mrs. Elizabeth B. Anderson
Lockport 886W2

Homer church women will participate in the World Day of Prayer service on Feb. 13 at the Lockport Methodist church, sponsored by the Council of United Church women. The program for this service has been arranged by Christian women of Egypt. Each year it is written by the women of a different country, making it more truly a world wide event.

Funeral services were held Jan. 26 at the Goodale Funeral home for Alex Sievert, 78, who died Saturday at the home of the John Donahues where he had lived for 20 years. Previous to that he was a helper for many years in the Harry Reed home on 143rd st. His entire life was spent in this area. Burial was in Hadley cemetery. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary Rippey, of Blue Island. The Rev. A. P. Breihan officiated at the service.

Frank Milne who has been hospitalized at St. Joseph's for several days for medical treatment, is improving.

Lana Carlson was bitten on the head and face last week by the family's German Shepherd dog. 37 stitches were taken to repair the damage. She is recovering nicely.

Mrs. Ray Carlson, Mrs. Ira Anderson and Leonard Anderson of New Lenox drove to Walnut, last Friday to attend the funeral of their cousin, Mrs. George Dahl.

Tickets are being distributed for the Homer Fire Protection District "Sweetheart" dance to be held at Goodings Grove hall Saturday evening, Feb. 14.

At the recent well attended meeting of the Homer church Missionary society, Mrs. Vera Waldvogel appointed committees for the coming year and announced plans for serving lunch at the auction sale to be held at the Marple farm on Homer rd. on Wednesday, Feb. 18. Harold Boram is the owner of farm equipment to be sold.

Mrs. Waldvogel and Mrs. Roy Parker will be hostesses at the February meeting of the society on the 26th.

Several Homer men attended Pancake Day at the Pad-dock Implement store in Plainfield, Monday, Jan. 19. Donald Jungles has been home from school by illness during the past week.

Chris Shields, who sold his farm equipment last Saturday, will continue to reside in the farm home. Merlin and Charles Jungles will cultivate the Shields land during the coming season.

A group of Hadley children enjoyed a sleigh ride last Sunday afternoon when Geo. Anderson hitched his team of spotted ponies to an old fashioned bob sleigh and toured the immediate neighborhood.

Regulate your driving speed according to road and weather conditions, says the Motor Club. Often, after a winter storm has passed, isolated icy spots remain in sheltered places. Be alert for slippery conditions when driving under viaducts, on bridges, in shaded spots and other protected

4-H NEWS

Helping Hands

The Helping Hands 4-H club was hostess at a party Friday evening, Jan. 30 at the Methodist Social hall. About 85 members, parents and friends were present to share in a memorable evening.

The highlight was a talk and colored slides by Miss Marilyn Nickel of Elgin about her experiences as an International Farm Youth Exchange delegate to Austria the past summer.

She told of the program and how by actually living and working with families there, good relationships are established between countries. Through this program, people in foreign countries form a much more wholesome opinion of Americans than that gathered from films.

Approximately 100 youth have had the opportunity of the exchange program since its beginning. Everyone who took the advantage of hearing Miss Nickel was favorably impressed and would like to hear her again.

Games were on the program too under leadership of Scharon Anast. Dorothy Stelter was mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Winnie Bauman introduced the 4-H leaders present — Mrs. Nicholas Schullien and Mrs. Robert Rich of Helping Hands; Mrs. Earl Siemson of Tinley Hustlers; and Mrs. Albert Zwyac of Handy Dandy 4-H; also Bill Whiteside, assistant Cook County farm adviser. Members of the above mentioned clubs as well as from Rich Bremen club and Do-R-Best were also present.

The Helping Hands group is planning a swim party Feb. 14 at the Bremen High school pool.

Bluebirds

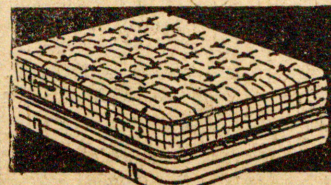

The New Lenox Bluebirds 4H club met Saturday in the Lions Den.

A new member, Elaine Scarpine, joined the club. The program included a talk on first aid by Joan Kestel and the leader, Mrs. Gus Termunde talked on daily diet. The next meeting will be held Saturday Feb. 21 at 1 p. m. in the Lions Den. All girls are asked to bring enrollment cards to the meeting.

School District Plans Survey to See if Federal Aid is Available

By EVELYN VAN HORN
Sycamore 8-9921

Zenon Sykuta reported that construction on the new school building, although hampered by the bad weather, is progressing satisfactorily. The furnace was turned on Monday for a two week period to dry out the building. The painting and millwork cannot be done until after this drying out period but other work is going on during this time. It is contemplated that the building will be done sometime in March.

The district is planning a survey to ascertain the number of parents employed by the federal government. Under public law 874, the federal government in certain branches of employment offers financial assistance to public schools. This aid depends on the number of children of these parents so employed. Our community might possibly come under this law. A brochure will be sent home with the children to be filled out by their parents. This is very important so request all parents to be sure to fill out the form on all children and send it back to school with the children.

The board is investigating the installation of a water softener at the Central school to assist the heating system. This would prevent damage to the boiler by eliminating the deposits in the boiler and pipes.

Wednesday the teachers sent home conference appointment notices for confirmation by the parents of pupils in kindergarten thru 8th grade. These conferences will be held Friday, Feb. 13, and are for parents only. The children are not to be there.

City Council
The City Council held its regular meeting Jan. 26 at the Model home. The Council agreed unanimously that a letter should be sent to the J. E. Merriam Co. expressing the gratitude of the Council for the prompt and efficient way the snow had been removed from the city streets following the heavy snowfall of Jan. 20, 21, and 22 which prevented the entire community from becoming snowbound.

Other ordinances passed were to require vendors and such, selling door to door, to obtain a license. A Civil Defense commission was established.

An appropriation of $500 was made to buy furniture for the new city hall which should be ready by the first week in Feb. By the establishment of the Civil Defense commission, the Council will be able to take advantage of tremendous discounts allowed for civil defense items purchased thru government surplus agencies which would include some of the office equipment needed for the city hall.

United Christian Church
At the Jan. 28 meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship, Mary Sonne presented the program on Saudi Arabia. Mary's sister, Rita, had spent two years as a nurse for Aramco, a subsidiary of Standard Oil, in the hospital which the company maintains for their employees and the people of Saudi Arabia. She was head nurse in the women's and children's ward.

The program consisted of colored slides of the people of Saudi Arabia, their homes, clothes, and market places with detailed descriptions.

Mrs. Edward Raloff, president of the Christian Women's Fellowship union, Chicago area, was a guest at the meeting and explained her position in the women's work and offered her assistance at any time.

The women will be aiding the patients at the Tinley Park State hospital to make valentines and nut cups for the Valentine party at the hospital. The women will be at the hospital Friday, Feb. 6 in the afternoon.

The Christian Women's Fellowship groups meet Feb. 10 and 11. The Joanna group will meet at Mrs. Charles Whites' home, on Wednesday, Feb. 11 at 10 a.m. The Esther group at Mrs. Robert Schoenenberger on Wednesday evening, Feb. 11 at 8:30 p.m. The Naomi group at Mrs. Nicholas Polito's home, Tuesday evening, Feb. 10 at 8:30 p.m.

The United Christian church will join with the Flossmoor Community church in observance of World Day of Prayer. Services will be held in the Flossmoor church at 1:30 p.m. The Rev. Wendell Pew of the United Christian church of Country Club Hills will be the speaker. All are invited to attend. A nursery for the little ones will be provided.

Teen Club Big Night
Plans for the installation of officers and the big dance to follow at Saenger hall in Tinley Park Friday, Feb. 6 are completed. This will be one of the big events of the year for the Teen-Club.

Ray Bergman will be master of ceremonies. Dick Moore-head a new resident of Country Club Hills and his ambassador orchestra is donating his services to the club that night.

Letters to the heads of organizations in Country Club Hills have been mailed inviting them to the event. Also all the Teen-Clubs in the area have received their invitations. The public and any teen age in the area are also invited.

Refreshments will be provided for all.

Unit III Elections
The Homeowners association will hold its regular meeting Tuesday, Feb. 10. All the block elections for representatives to the association are expected to be completed by this meeting and the new representatives introduced.

"Cupid's Ball" Saturday
The Women's club of Country Club Hills have been busy with the door-to-door sale of tickets. For those who possibly were missed in this canvass, tickets will be on sale at Saenger hall in Tinley Park, Saturday evening and can be purchased as you enter the ballroom.

The Women's club has done much to aid our schools and the communities support of this event would show our appreciation.

Bus Service
John R. Joynt, chairman of the traffic committee of the Civic Association reported that after talking to Ray Johnson, assistant manager of South Suburban Safeway Lines, the conclusion reached was the figures showed that the number of regular passengers would only warrant two runs a day, and then only one way.

This would not be sufficient to support the service at this time. When the population and demand increase and the main shopping center is complete, there should be no difficulty in obtaining bus service for our city. The Civic Association will then try again to procure bus service for our community.

Mothers March
The annual March of Dimes door-to-door collection was made Jan. 27. Mrs. Gus Palumbo, chairman of the drive in Country Club Hills, expressed her gratitude for the cooperation received in securing volunteers for this drive. The snow and cold made it more difficult to get around but 33 hardy volunteers braved the cold to collect $246.12. No goal had been set for Country Club Hills but everyone felt this was a job well done.

Cub Pack Meeting
The Jan. Cub. pack meeting was held Jan. 30 in the Thomas Lane schools. All dens participated in the program. Den 7 announced the program, the theme of which was "Freedom of speech and the Press"; Den 4 presented the colors and led in the pledge of allegiance to the flag, and the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner." Den 1 presented a skit about the daily life of newsmen.

Each den made hats out of newspaper like those worn by the men in the printing trade, carrying out the theme and also murals depicting the top news stories of 1958. Each boy had drawn what he considered the most important story of the year. Den 1 won the honor award for best presentation

Sacred Heart League to Install Officers, Honor Past Presidents

By MRS. PATRICIA WARNER
Mokena 2721

The Sacred Heart League will hold installation of officers and Past Presidents day on Sunday, Feb. 8, at 3 p.m. in the social center. All ladies in the Parish are invited to attend. Refreshments and entertainment will be provided.

Birthday galore were celebrated in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Sorensen at a family dinner Sunday. The honored guests were their son, Stephen and Mrs. Sorensen's brother, Dr. Tom Gunhouse, whose birthdays are on Jan. 31. Other celebrants among the guests were Mrs. Tom Gunhouse and Nelson Gunhouse, father of Mrs. Sorensen, whose birthday is Feb. 1.

Mrs. Carol Roberts is in Silver Cross hospital suffering from a broken ankle, sustained when she fell while lighting from her car.

The Holy Name society of St. Mary's Catholic church will hold their husband and wife night party this evening Feb. 5 at 8 o'clock in the social center of the church. A movie entitled, "The Glenn Miller Story," will be shown followed by refreshments.

but all were very well done. Inspection was held for each den and the competition ended in a tie between Den 1 and 3. Both dens had all boys present in uniform with shoes polished.

A vital part of the meeting was the receiving of awards by the boys. Bill Ramseyer and George Barry received their dinner stripes; David Kelley his assistant dinner stripes. Wolf badges were issued to: Ralph Wroblewski, John Hennessey, Greg Jones, David Sykuta and Larry Aber; Bob Hancock, Bear badge and gold and silver arrow; Gary Van Horn, Lion badge; one year service pins to Make Katkins, Greg Koehn, and Boyd Nicholson.

Den 3 led the closing with the singing of "Goodnight Cub Scouts" as the boys formed the living circle.

THIS, TOO, IS TEXAS EASTERN

Have You Ever Wondered Just Where Your Natural Gas Supply Comes From?

Twist a valve on your range. Instantly a blue natural gas flame appears! Where did it come from?

If your local distributor is supplied natural gas by Texas Eastern, that gas could have come from the wells on the bayous of Louisiana... or from the rolling plains of Texas... or even from as far away as the brown hills of northeastern Mexico... via pipeline.

Texas Eastern's pipeline system stretches from Mexico to New York, passing through 15 states. There are more than 6,100 miles of pipe of varying sizes in the system. Sixty-one compressor stations, located every 50 to 75 miles, supply the horsepower required to move large volumes of gas through the lines. In addition, there are 417 special points where we buy gas for our pipeline and 114 points where the gas is sold to distributors.

Last year, more than 600 billion cubic feet of gas were delivered to distributors serving millions of homes and thousands of factories. Next year the quantity will be even greater.

To operate the 6,100 miles of pipeline, Texas Eastern requires the diversified talents of nearly 2,000 people: engineers, construction workers, chemists, mechanics, electricians, welders, oilers, compressor operators, communication and electronic experts, maintenance men, right-of-way men, accountants, and a whole host of clerical help.

Operation and maintenance of the system is continuous. Maintenance crews are stationed about every 100 miles along the pipeline. Because the pipeline, other than at the compressor stations, runs underground, the right-of-way is constantly patrolled. In congested areas, this is done on foot or by automobile; in other areas by airplane.

Keeping this giant system filled with gas is the responsibility of our gas supply section. These people contract with producers to obtain gas for transmission to markets. They have done their work so well that today our reserves—gas available for the future—total more than 12 trillion cubic feet—and they are being increased every year.

The staff that manages the gas system and is responsible for all present and future planning has its headquarters in Shreveport, Louisiana.

From sun-up to sun-up, gas moves continuously silently and dependably through our pipelines from Mexico to New York so that any time, day or night—at your command—a warming gas flame can be brought to life.

Generous - to a Fault

We Americans, and we use the term in its insular sense so it is confined to citizens of the United States, must appear as an odd-ball lot to the rest of the world. Some contend that our conduct lends credence to the theory held by certain mental health authorities that everyone is a bit potty.

That may well be but we think it would sound nicer to say that while we may appear to be somewhat off the beam at times, we are not really nuts. It just looks that way at times, that's all.

Take our foreign aid for instance. We say to the world—need some money? Well, come and get it. When do you have to pay it back? How much is the interest? Why, nothing! This is free. It's a gift, a sort of from our-house-to-your-house proposition. All we want is for you to be happy.

Of course, if Russia decides to make the cold war against us a hot one, we would appreciate it if you would help us—well, then be friendly toward us?—Neutral then?—Well alright, if you have to side with Russia you have to side with Russia but think kindly of us now and then, will you?

Some European, of all things, once called Americans a nation of money grubbers, whose sole interest in life was the pursuit of the dollar and the description has stuck and is pretty well generally believed. Even some Americans believe it.

But if anyone likes money better than Europeans or Asians we have no idea who they might be. Money is important and they realize it. And when we start shoveling out dollars and declare we want nothing in return but peace and friendship, our declarations are greeted with raised eyebrows and an incredulous look.

A likely story, they say, and mark us down as fools, crazy or liars of the first magnitude. The peoples of the older countries are convinced there is nothing free. Someone gives you something you pay for it in some way. It is no wonder then that our style of dealing out great wads of cash to foreign nations should rouse their suspicions and make them fear the worst.

While our apparent aim is to win countries away from Russia we also aid those who are avowed friends of the Reds. We are sorry that the United States ever recognized Soviet Russia and are against recognition of Red China but it seems strange in a way to cold shoulder China and then turn around and lavish huge sums of cash on Red Czechoslovakia and Red Poland.

In the past 10 days quite a number of Americans have been getting up quite a lather because Castro has kept firing squads working overtime in reducing the number of his side's enemies.

At the same time we have been wining and dining a visiting gangster and murderer in the person of the No. 2 man of Russia.

There were city and state officials, including judges, who at various times extended the hand of fellowship to the late Al Capone and other infamous characters on occasion but to the best of our recollection no city called out a police escort for Capone to make certain that his stay there was undisturbed, nor did leading industrialists and financiers of the country ever, openly at least, entertain Al at luncheons and dinners.

Of course we aren't crazy, as some would have us believe, but we are inconsistent and contradictory and other people don't know what to make of us. And for that matter we don't know what to make of other people. We want the rest of the world to like us and are quite unhappy when we discover that we are far from being popular.

Please, won't someone write a book on How to be Realistic and Influence Nations?

MINOR AILMENTS

There is a whole host of minor but aggravating conditions which at one time or another will plague some member of the family.

These afflictions are frequently painful and persistent but are not otherwise serious. Today we shall discuss two of the more common occurrences of this sort.

Ingrown toenails can often be an irritating problem. They almost always develop in the big toes and are usually the result of excessive rubbing or pressure by ill-fitting shoes. However some toenails grow in a manner that will lead eventually to ingrown toenails even with properly fitted shoes. The original difficulty is produced by the corner of the nail growing down into the flesh. Pressure then forces the flesh against the nail, producing discomfort and then infection in the area.

When this situation first develops, careful and frequent trimming of the corner of the nail can correct matters. A little cotton wadding can be stuffed beneath the edge of the nail to elevate it and this too will improve the difficulty. Once infection has appeared however, these measures usually do not prevent trouble from recurring.

There is only one sure-fire means of curing the ingrown infected toenail. It is a treatment which is reserved for those cases which fail to respond to other measures and it is based on the fact that an ingrown toenail cannot develop if the side of the nail cannot grow. By "freezing" the toe with a local anesthetic, it is a simple matter to remove the side of the nail bed from beneath the cuticle where the nail is produced. This prevents the side of the nail from growing although it does not interfere with the growth of the remainder of the nail. Moreover the flesh beneath the missing section of nail rapidly becomes so toughened that it serves just as well.

Ankle sprains range all the way from being a minor, temporary annoyance to being almost completely crippling for a time. The bones of the ankle are held together and supported by strong "straps" which are called ligaments. When the ankle is suddenly twisted violently, a section of these ligaments is torn which produces immediate pain and swelling. This is a sprain. How severe the injury is depends on how much of the "strap" is torn.

For the average sprain, a day or two of rest is all that is necessary. Immediate application of cold packs relieves some of the swelling. Contrary to popular opinion, strapping the ankle does the sprain no good. Since it braces the ankle, firm wrapping does relieve some of the pain but this simply encourages the person to walk more and interferes with the healing of the ligaments.

We understand that affluent groundhogs are now going to Arizona or Florida to take their sights and as a result are making quite a record for themselves as foretelling the end of winter.

But whether he stays north or goes south, don't sell A. Groundhog short. The weatherman misses too.

FARM NEWS

For Cook County by W. F. Whiteside

Assistant farm adviser

I know all of you are besieged with printed information from numerous sources. The information I am about to relay to you will furnish you with more of the same. I would like to say at the beginning, that I am very enthusiastic about this new publication from the University of Illinois. It is entitled "Illinois Research" and is published by the Illinois Agricultural Experiment Station. It will be published quarterly. This publication will introduce a new service by your College of Agriculture. Its main purpose is to report in a non-technical manner, the research being done at the Illinois Agricultural Experiment Station.

A run down of the contents of the first issue reveals the following interesting topics: Minimum Tillage - Reduces Work Without Reducing Yields; How Nitrogen Behaves in the Soil; High-Oil Hybrids Make King Corn More Useful; Is Nylon Clothing Hotter than Cotton Clothing? You get results of the research in an article entitled "Clothing Comfort". Many of you have attempted to start evergreen cuttings. The horticulture department has something to say about this project. What will be the trend of farm business during the next three months? Illinois research will tell you.

If you are interested in receiving this publication regularly, send your request to the Agricultural Information Office, 110 Mumford Hall, Urbana.

III. If you wish a copy in a hurry, I have a few copies in the office.

A number of 4-H leaders attended the District Leader's Conference in Kankakee. The theme of the conference was, "Safety in the 4-H Program". South Cook leaders attending this conference were: Mrs. K. Ihlenfeld, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Siemsen, Tinley Park; Mrs. Philip Utte, Markham; Henry Veldhuizen, Sr., Glenwood; James Bussemma, Chicago Heights; Albert Reeves, Orland. Also, junior leaders Walter Reeves, Orland and Russell Bettenhausen, Tinley Park.

The icy roads, snowdrifts and typical zero weather we have been having recently would have caused much concern to you if the college of agriculture had continued farm and home week has been dropped from the schedule and replaced by the Farm and Home Festival, we can wish for better roads on April 2, 3 and 4. These are the festival dates. The festival theme is "Research for Tomorrow". This is the second year for the festival and staff members at the college hope to make the '59 festival more successful than the one held in 1958. More than 15,000 people attended last year.

will be held Feb. 28-March 7. Cook County 4-H members will be taking part in a window display contest during the week. Rules are already in the hands of the leaders, and members should be making plans for an attractive display.

With the type of weather we have been having, I probably shouldn't even be talking about oats. Many of you recall the survey taken during oat planting season last year. I will report the results of tests on one sample collected in this county. As you will see, this is not the best sample collected; however, I am sure you will agree with me that there is no justification for planting seed of this type.

This particular lot of seed was reportedly two years away from certification. It was obtained from a neighbor. The seed was not cleaned or treated and no germination or purity tests were run. This particular sample contained 218 Canada Thistle seeds per pound, and 50 common weed seeds per pound. If the seeding rate used was two bushels per acre, this would put 13,952 Canada Thistle seeds on one acre, in addition to 3,200 common weed seeds. Needless to say, this lot of seed was not certified. The case reported here would seem to be an excellent reason for obtaining high quality seed. You can be assured that certified seed is of high quality.

On Second Thot

by Glenn F. Logan

February is a short month but it will be a busy one for civic and community-minded people of good will.

For one thing, February is Heart Month, and we intend no reference to Valentine's day with its accompaniment of paper and candy hearts. Valentines are intended to mend broken hearts while the Heart Fund pays for research that is seeking ways to mend ailing hearts.

Much has been achieved in the war against heart ailments in the past decade and much more will be accomplished in the next 10 years but such work is quite costly and much money is needed. That is why an appeal is made to the public at this time each year.

National Boy Scout Week is also observed in February. In fact it is scheduled to begin tomorrow and run thru the 12th. This is a time when editorials are written and speeches made eulogizing Boy Scout. It is most proper that tribute also should be paid to volunteer adult leaders who give so freely of their time and efforts in making the Scout program a success. These unselfish men and women in doing a good job for Scouting are doing a wonderful job for the nation.

Also on the calendar for the month is Brotherhood Week, Feb. 15-22, sponsored by the National Conference of Christians and Jews, Inc. This period, it is pointed out, was established to emphasize NCCJ's year-round program to advance the idea of respect for people and human rights. The goal is to make brotherhood a year-round practice.

Another cause to seek public aid, beginning Feb. 23 and running thru March 15, is the Kidney Disease Foundation of Illinois. Volunteer canvassers are to call on their neighbors for contributions to sustain research programs now underway. Those in charge are hopeful that a cure for nephrosis may be found before death overtakes children now suffering from this kidney disease of unknown cause.

Children who have the disease frequently require hospitalization, medical care, laboratory examinations and often costly medication.

On the launching pad too this month is the Advertising Council's Crusade for Freedom campaign with a two-fold purpose; one -- "to increase public understanding of, and moral support for, the work of Radio Free Europe; two -- to obtain truth dollars to keep this important anti-communist network on the air, broadcasting truthful news and information to the satellite countries of Eastern Europe."

February also sees the observance of the birthdays of two of the nation's great figures -- George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. Lincoln's birthday is on the 12th; Washington's on the 22nd.

And every four years -- when the month has 29 days -- February gives notice of open season on all males of marriageable degree and gives gals opportunity to stalk down a mate. Just how this legend started is not known exactly but it must have been a gag. Even a casual dabbler in mythology will recall that the diety in charge of hunting was not a god but a goddess.

February also has attained fame because of the long range forecasting service offered by A. Groundhog, Limited. For it is on Feb. 2 that A. Groundhog or one of his representatives, awakes from his winter's nap and emerges from his burrow to survey conditions in the countryside.

If the day be cloudy so Mr. Groundhog, or his agent, does not cast a shadow then he knows winter is past and he is at liberty to begin his spring labors.

On the other hand, if the sun is shining so A. Groundhog not only throws a shadow but can see it too thru his bleary, sleepfilmed eyes, he promptly returns to his burrow for another six-week's wink because he knows there will be that much more of winter.

In this region it would seem that any groundhog would return to bed regardless of whether he saw his shadow or not, because one can always be certain of some rather miserable, nasty weather in February and if one has an opportunity to stay out of it and doesn't then he is indeed a foolish one.

We understand that affluent groundhogs are now going to Arizona or Florida to take their sights and as a result are making quite a record for themselves as foretelling the end of winter.

But whether he stays north or goes south, don't sell A. Groundhog short. The weatherman misses too.

Mason Warns of Threat to American Way of Life

By Cong. N. M. MASON

An average of 12,000 to 14,000 separate bills are introduced in the Congressional hopper during each Congress. These bills are sent to the appropriate committee for action—to be considered, screened, amended, approved or rejected. The committees of Congress are therefore the real workshops of Congress—the place where nine tenths of the real work is done.

Approximately 90% of the bills introduced at each session are killed in committee, while only 10% of the total number of bills are approved in committee and sent to the floor for action by the House.

Committee work is therefore the most important part of each Congressman's daily activities. Yet this work always rests upon the shoulders of a minority of the members of each committee.

Today we have a social welfare Congress, the direct result of the effective campaign put on last fall by Big Labor organizations and the very effective job these Big Labor organizations have done in the past two years in selling their program to the voters of both political parties. If the present trend continues for the next two years we will have a social welfare executive department after the 1960 election.

Those groups that are opposed to a social welfare government have only two years to change the trend toward such government. Unless some thing is done by those opposed, unless something is done to protect and defend the Constitution of the United States and the American way of life, that has developed under that Constitution, unless something is done to offset the effective publicity of the Big Labor organizations during the next two years, this Nation with its blessings and opportunities will go down the drain and a welfare state with its "freeloaders" will be established in Washington. The average American taxpayer then will be forced to assume the greatly increased "carrying charges" that go with the heavy cost of a welfare state.

The question every citizen should be asking himself is, "Are we heading toward a Labor-Socialist government which England found so disastrous, or will we learn from her sad experience?"

Today there is no difference between a Taft Republican and a Jeffersonian Democrat. They think alike, believe alike and vote alike.

The writer has been called a conservative, an ultra conservative, a reactionary, a rightist. He classifies himself as a Taft Republican. He believes in the free enterprise system, a balanced budget, a sound dollar, economy in government, lower taxes, and the right of every man to spend his own money and not have it spent for him by a bureaucratic government in Washington. If standing for and working for those fundamental principles makes him a conservative or a rightist, then he is one. If standing for those principles makes him an American, then he is one.

Our mountain of debt: Public Debt: Our Federal Debt $283.0 billion Our Total State Debt 14.7 billion

Recorded Private Debt Farm, Corporate and Family Debt $449.6 billion Combined Public and Private Debt $788.8 billion

America and Americans owe more than all the rest of the world, yet we keep handing it out to other countries.

Some "leads" to his interests and some ideas about his work habits. Then Mrs. Lynch suggests these five ways to encourage a child to study:

Develop in him an interest in improving. Praise and encouragement will help. Keep in touch with the school's methods, purposes and programs. Help the child appreciate and like his teacher and schoolmates. Provide a definite time for study—before he's too tired. Provide a definite place for study, with adequate light, table space, supplies and a straight chair. This place should also be free from radio, TV or phonograph during study time.

Tinley Hospital to Nominate Candidates for NAMH Awards

For the 12th year the National Association for Mental Health will acclaim the outstanding services of mental hospital ward personnel by conferring achievement award on representative psychiatric aides selected by their co-workers, patients and fellow citizens. Dr. John L. Cutler, Tinley Park State Hospital Superintendent announced today.

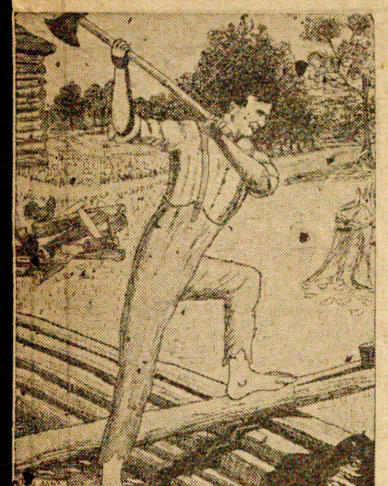

The awards will be presented during Mental Health Week ceremonies, April 26 to May 2.

Invitations to nominate candidates have gone out to 372 public hospitals for the mentally ill and handicapped thru out the U. S. and its territories.

Dr. Cutler said: "The purpose of these awards is to focus attention on the important role of psychiatric aides, to help gain them adequate recognition and acceptance and to encourage higher standards of care on the ward care of all the members of the staff, only the psychiatric aide is in constant and intimate contact with the patient, and he thus becomes the primary pillar of reassurance and stability and hope through their times of anxiety and despair. In many cases it is the aides' patience and constant humane attentiveness that chiefly shapes the patients' response to treatment."

Last year NAMH conferred awards on 70 women and 56 men. They represented 52,932 psychiatric aides caring for 323,297 patients in 126 institutions in 39 states and the District of Columbia. Since the awards program's inception in 1947, NAMH has sponsored 960 aides in 251 institutions in 45 states, the District of Columbia and Hawaii. Tinley Park State Hospital opened January 2, 1958 for patient admissions. Last year the hospital was not eligible to nominate candidates. This year, Tinley Park State Hospital will nominate eligible candidates to select an aide to be submitted to the NAMH for consideration.

Suggests Way To Encourage Study Habits

1-24 —Inside "Why should I study any harder? I'm used to getting low grades."

The first step in trying to change this attitude is to find out what things the child likes to do.

Mrs. Marguerite B. Lynch, University of Illinois child development specialist, points out that adults—both parents and teachers—should understand that a child must be ready to learn before he will absorb much. He will try to learn about the things that interest him and mean something to him.

According to Mrs. Lynch, parents should begin by talking with the child's teacher, club leader and other adults whom the child knows and respects. They may give Gast the fourth year trophy. Each student competed against other students in the same grade level.

MAURICE P. ANGLAND
Standard & Poor's investment service recently published charts showing the tremendous gains in research expenditures since the end of World War II.

In 1945, total expenditures in research were close to $2 billion with industry and "all others" about evenly divided. In 1959 it is estimated that in industry will spend about $8 billion on research and others about $2 billion or a total in the neighborhood of $10 billion. By 1970 it is estimated that industry, alone, will be spending about $15 billion on research and that other sources will be adding another $3 billion.

The change from random discoveries of individual inventors to organized scientific efforts with staffs of trained scientists and adequately equipped laboratories, has brought many new industries into being. Old processes have been improved, etc.

It was not many years ago that few industrial firms made it a matter of policy to budget a particular percentage of sales, to an organized research department. Competition has changed this condition.

A few years ago chemical manufacturers and those with new alloys for specialized use, had to fight hard to get these items even thoroughly tested by their prospective customers. Changing the old way of doing things was not done quickly. Today, we all expect new developments as a matter of course.

The usual period between the research expenditure and a commercial product, ready for use, is about five years. We can expect that some of the research work of 1954 and 1955, when there was a big spurt in such expenditures, will result in new products this year.

New products and improved processes, force industries to acquire new productive machinery and equipment, to stay competitive. This is reflected in the present emphasis on new machinery and equipment rather than new buildings etc.

Ordinarily conservative industrial commentators believe the impact of this research boom, is difficult to over estimate.

The magazine Financial World of January 21, 1959 carries an article titled "Atoms for Peaceful Purposes." In part it states,

"The Air Force is looking into the possibility that a nuclear rocket engine may hold the key to travel in outer space while continuing research on a nuclear powered plane."

The magazine goes on to point out that mining companies are interested in pulverizing entire ore bodies with an atom blast and recovering the minerals at lower costs. Oil companies are interested in underground nuclear explosions with their extremely high heat and thereby low cost recovery of oil from shale deposits. News dispatches from Washington announced a few days ago that such a test is to be made on a large shale deposit in Colorado. There are many large deposits of such oil shale in the west. Low cost oil recovery has been difficult.

As to producing electricity thru use of atomic energy, as yet this needs considerable development. It now costs $300 to $400 per kilowatt of installed capacity, to build a nuclear

Texas Eastern Plans to Reduce Pipeline Rates

Tariffs for the transportation of petroleum products over the Little Big Inch pipeline ARE TO BE REDUCED effective MARCH 1, 1959, according to an announcement today by Millard K. Neptune, Senior Vice-President of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation. The Little Big Inch pipeline, one of the war emergency pipelines of World War II, was reconverted from a gas pipeline to a common carrier of petroleum products last year.

The new tariffs will provide greater reductions on gasolines than on petroleum distillates due to the fact that gasolines are lighter, less viscous, and generally easier to pump and to handle. The new rates into Chicago from Beaumont will be 40 cents per barrel on gasolines and 44 cents on distillates as compared with the present rate of 48 cents for either product. Comparable reductions are provided for other destinations on the pipeline, Mr. Neptune said.

In announcing the reductions, Mr. Neptune stated that the lower tariffs will make use of the Little Big Inch economically feasible for many more shippers than are now utilizing the service.

"Several developments have occurred," Mr. Neptune said, "since the tariff structure of the Little Big Inch was computed which have made it possible for us to make this reduction. Chief among the factors leading to the reduction are elimination of the 4 and one half percent federal transportation tax on pipeline shipments and reduction of capital investment and operating costs below those originally forecast for the Little Big Inch."

The new rates apply on all shipments which move only over the Little Big Inch. Joint tariffs with other pipelines are not affected by today's announcement.

Protecting the wholesomeness and safety of our food supply is the job of the Federal Food and Drug Administration. Through rigid regulations this organization demands 1, that foods be protected from diseases and insects, and 2, that these pests and diseases be controlled without harmful residues of chemicals getting into food supplies.

leak power plant in this country as against only $100 to $200 for conventional generating station.

The Financial World points out that in Western Europe it costs from 40 percent to 60 percent more to produce a kilowatt hour of electricity. We are assisting these countries in their efforts to achieve lower cost nuclear generation. England has a large test plant now.

We are the leading producers of uranium in the world today.

Tax Facts No. 1

Selecting the Proper Tax Form

(This is one of a series of articles on federal income tax filing. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service.)

If you are one of the millions of American taxpayers who spends the lion's share of his income feeding, clothing, housing and entertaining his family, chances are there is very little you can do to reduce your 1958 federal income tax bill—but you owe it to yourself to try.

First of all, decide which of the two individual tax forms you are going to use to report your income. If you choose the wrong one, you may automatically cut yourself off from a possible tax savings.

The easiest way to file is to use the simple 1040-A Form. It's a card the size of a check on which you answer a few simple questions and have the choice of either computing your own tax or letting the Government do it for you.

You are permitted to use the card form if your gross income consisted only of wages, dividends or interest totaling less than $10,000, and if you did not have more than $200 of gross income apart from that listed on your W-2 withholding slips.

Facts to Consider

Before deciding to use the card Form 1040-A, you should consider these facts:

1. Your tax will be figured from a table which allows you a deduction of about 10 per cent of your income instead of itemized deductions for contributions, taxes, interest paid, medical and dental expenses, etc.

2. There is no provision in this form for filing as the "head of household," as a "surviving spouse" or for claiming special credits for dividends and retirement income.

If you are sure that these two points would not cost you any tax savings, and your income is within the limits for filing a Form 1040-A, you might as well use this simple card form.

Whether to Itemize

When you elect to use the regular Form 1040, you still must decide whether to itemize deductions or take the standard deduction which usually amounts to about 10 per cent of your income or $1,000, whichever is less. Generally, you will save by itemizing deductions if you:

1. Own real estate.
2. Had unusual medical expenses.
3. Had deductible child care expense.
4. Suffered losses from fire, storm, accident or theft.
5. Made fairly large charitable contributions.

If you are supporting a dependent, although you are unmarried, you may be able to qualify as a "head of household" and figure your tax on a special table that gives you part of the advantage enjoyed by married couples filing joint returns.

You may qualify for a "head of household" status if you provide more than half the support of a parent, and more than half the cost of maintaining the parent's household even if the parent does not live with you. You cannot claim a "head of household" status if you file a Form 1040-A.

The 1040 Form is arranged again this year so that a taxpayer whose income was entirely from wages needs to use only the first one or two pages. Pages three and four are for other types of income and for computing the special credits for dividends and retirement income.

The instructions which come with your tax forms give further information on how to select the correct tax form. Help is also available from the Internal Revenue Service.

ICC Studies Water Program for C. C. Hills

(CNS) A $470,000 expansion program in Country Club Hills by the 183rd and Cicero Water and Sewer company is under study by the Illinois Commerce Commission.

The public utility, now serving a section of the new city has filed application to extend its operation to an area coterminous with the city limits. Data submitted to ICC Examiner Francis J. Cody included estimates of $303,952 for extension of sewer facilities and $166,817 for water facilities to Units 6, 7 and 8 of Country Club Hills.

Harry F. Shea is president of the utility, represented by Att. Samuel J. Sherman.

The water and sewage systems, with extensions when needed, are designed to serve ultimately 4,000 homes.

Tax Bite on New Cars is a Really Big One!

By MAURICE W. SCOTT
(Exec. Sec. Taxpayers Federation of Illinois)

Thirty five percent of the nation's families have $1,000 or more in liquid assets, such as checking accounts, savings accounts in banks, postal savings, shares in credit unions, shares in savings and loan associations and U. S. Government savings bonds, the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois said today. But if the head of such a family buys a low priced car, the taxes on the purchase take a good chunk out of his savings.

In fact, the taxes on a new car with a discounted price of $2,500 amount to $600. This is $100 in excess of the $500 distribution cost and is nearly equivalent to one half of the $1,400 manufacturing cost. Taxes are one of the reasons why the purchase of a new auto hits the savings account much harder than a few years ago.

What goes into the $600 tax in the purchase of a $2,500 car? According to records kept by the Ford Motor Company, the Automobile Manufacturers' Association and other industry sources, the breakdown is as follows:

First, the manufacturer is stuck to the tune of $190, divided as follows: Federal excise tax, $200; property, income and other such classified taxes, $150; taxes in the price of purchased materials and parts, $140.

Next comes the dealer. He, too, is bitten by the tax bug. Property, income and other such taxes are levied against him to the extent of $20. This is one of his costs of doing business and helps get the final price of the auto up to $2,500.

Finally comes the buyer or consumer into the picture, and if he looks closely he will find that taxes are not playing him any favorite. Boldly included in the $2,500 discount price are these items: State sales tax, $75; license and title fees, $15; total, $90.

As these figures only represent the tax bite on a lower priced car, they are not high enough to represent the tax burden on most auto purchases. Late statistics show that the pattern of consumer spending for new cars demonstrates preference for higher priced models with optional equipment.

Gasoline vapors not only are invisible; but are also three times heavier than air. This makes it important to have your gasoline tanks outside of the buildings so that fumes cannot collect in large quantities.

Illinois Lawn Equipment Inc. An Open Letter To Homeowners

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Homeowner:

Many of you people are familiar with our place of business. We have been in our present location five years, and associated in the equipment field three years before that.

We have tried hard to keep our customers happy most of the time, and in looking over our repeat business, we feel that we have succeeded.

Of course in any new business there are times when a customer is the victim of its growing pains, and for that we are sorry.

We have continually increased the proficiency of our mechanics and shop facilities. We have added to our parts stock, until now it is one of the largest on the Chicago south side. Yet there are still many makes of mowers for which it is impractical for us to stock parts. In the past five years over 480 different makes of mowers have been put on the market. As of now only about 200 are left, and in a few years below 100 makes will remain.

For the above reason, we decided at the start to stay with the reliable standard brand manufacturers, whose mowers showed good engineering. Those who have bought our products, to the best of our knowledge, have been very satisfied. We have in the past, and will continue to stand behind what we sell.

There is one thing we wish to point out, and that is the fact that sixty percent of our year's business has to be conducted in four months of the year, Springtime. Unfortunately that is the only time many people think of us. If you bring your mower in at that time, we will not be able to give you the service we would like.

PLEASE BRING YOUR MOWER IN NOW, OR CALL TO HAVE IT PICKED UP FOR WINTER SERVICE.

Very truly yours,

Robert P. Johnson,
General Manager

What does modern electric heating have to offer the new home buyer?

If you are buying or building a new home, these facts will explain why the most luxurious heat of all is well worth a few extra dollars a month

Q. Is electric heating clean?

A. It's just as clean as electric light! You see, it uses no fuel—there's nothing to burn, no open flames. And with nothing burning, there's no smoke or soot to create dirt.

Q. Does it make any noise?

A. Radiant Electric Heating is absolutely silent. There are no moving parts, nothing running. No furnace noise.

Q. How about comfort control?

A. Radiant Electric Heating doesn't compromise on comfort. Separate thermostats in each room let you choose the exact degree of heat you need. You can keep the bathroom at 80°, while the living room is 72°, and the bedrooms are set for perfect sleeping comfort at an even 65°.

Q. Is electric heating complicated to operate?

A. It's as easy as tuning your radio. All you do is set the thermostats to the temperature you want. Radiant Electric Heating does the rest, automatically.

Q. How does it feel?

A. It's a deep-down penetrating warmth that feels like the sun! You see, Radiant Electric Heating warms objects in the room directly.

Q. What does it look like?

A. Radiant Electric Heating is available in various forms. It can be a compact baseboard installed along the base of exterior walls and painted to match the room. It can be embedded in the floor or ceiling (only the wall thermostat is visible). Or it can consist of radiant glass panels, installed in the walls.

Q. How much do I pay for a Radiant Electric Heating System?

A. In the majority of cases, a Radiant Electric Heating system will cost less to install than conventional flame-type systems. Of course, insulation and storm doors and windows are a necessary part of any Electrically Heated Home (Commonwealth Edison does not recommend electric heating for a home without them). But you need no chimney, no hot water pipes or radiators, no furnace, no fuel storage space. And Radiant Electric Heating takes no usable floor space.

Q. How about upkeep?

A. With modern Radiant Electric Heating there are no moving parts, nothing to get out of order. Nothing to adjust, nothing to clean. As a result, the upkeep is just a fraction of what you'd pay to keep a conventional heating system in operation.

Q. What's this I hear about a special electric heating rate?

A. Recently, Commonwealth Edison and Public Service Company put into effect a new electric heating rate that cuts the cost of heating with electricity about 30%. This new rate, together with new developments in heating equipment and better standards of home insulation, puts electric heating well within the means of most new home buyers. As a result, new electric heating has been specified for more than 900 homes and apartments.

Q. How much does it cost to operate?

A. Operating costs of electric heating obviously will vary according to the size and type of home and family living habits. Commonwealth Edison and Public Service Company, or your home builder, will be glad to provide electric heating estimates based on the specifications of the home you plan to build or buy.

Q. What happens if the electricity goes off?

A. If the electricity ever did go off, the electric heating would go off, too. But so would most other kinds of automatic heating. Most fuel-type heating systems depend upon electricity for operation.

Q. Is it safe?

A. It's fully as safe as the electric light you're reading this by. With electric heating in your home you'll enjoy a wonderful new peace of mind. There's nothing to escape, drip, leak, smell or boil over.

Q. Where can I learn more about electric heating?

A. You can get more information by phoning your nearest Commonwealth Edison or Public Service Company office. Or you can see new Electrically Heated Homes now being featured by progressive builders in the Chicago area.

Remember, electric heating is available now! There's no waiting list and no permits are needed! So if a new home is on the horizon for you, look into the modern miracle of electric heating. After all, doesn't it make sense to get the advanced heating in your new home that you've always hoped would be available someday?
